

Host your event at Planting Fields

"...a flowery legacy of a gilded age."

The New York Times

Planting Field's historic gardens provide the perfect setting for weddings, rehearsal dinners, and other special celebrations.

Weddings and events take place in the evenings with ceremonies beginning at 5pm or later, after the gardens have closed to the public. Only one evening event is booked per date to ensure your event's exclusivity.

Reserving Planting Fields for your private event requires a contribution at the $15,000 level and provides the host with one year of Sustaining Member benefits.

To schedule a walk-through or to check available dates, please contact Imcgurk@plantingfields.org

