

PLANTING FIELDS

Love in Full Bloom

A Day Trip Itinerary for Valentines and Galentines!

Love is in the air at Planting Fields! Have the perfect winter day trip and celebrate with your loved ones. See our top five things to do this month and beyond below.

1. Quality Time on a Woodland Hike

Start your day at Planting Fields on a beautiful winter hike! Nearly six miles of trails will keep you warm as you find yourself enjoying peaceful one-on-one time with your special someone. Make sure to stop by the Carshalton Gates, about a mile from the parking lot.

2. Stroll Through the Gardens

Wander through the Vista Path, still lovely in winter with its structured meditative pathways and stone sculptures. Even in February, its serene beauty offers a quiet place for reflection.

3. Warm Up in the Tropical Main Greenhouse

Stroll through the Main Greenhouse where you can enjoy the vibrant tropical plants and flowers in bloom, perfect for a cozy winter escape. Bring lunch and fuel up for the rest of your adventure!

The Main Greenhouse is open Wednesday – Monday from 10am – 3:45pm. Free admission.

4. Sightseeing Walk & Romantic Photo Ops

Continue exploring the grounds at your leisure. Head to the Playhouse and Tea House and imagine their beauty in spring and summer or enjoy the views of the Great Lawn. Remember your time together forever – take a photo by one of the garden spaces, inside one of the greenhouses or just outside of the Main House!

5. The Charm of Our Camellias

One of the most enchanting sights in the entire Northeast: Camellias in bloom at Planting Fields. Immerse yourself in the vibrant colors of thousands of flowers, now through the end of the month. Don't forget to make reservations for dinner, lunch or brunch! Our friends at 2 Spring have prepared incredible menus for everyday eats, Valentine's Day, and even an extra special Galentine's Day Brunch on Feb. 8, 9, 15 & 16!

The Camellia House is open Wednesday – Monday from 10am – 3:45pm. Free admission.

Leave Planting Fields refreshed, inspired by the natural beauty, and with memories of a peaceful, memorable day together!
