

Planting Fields Foundation's Youth Leaders Application

PLANTING FIELDS

November 1, 2026

Dear Prospective Leader,

Planting Fields Foundation is offering a five-week summer program for high school students that will complete either their freshman, sophomore or junior year by June 2026. Planting Fields Foundation's Youth Leaders program is a prestigious and highly selective opportunity designed to engage and empower six high school students with hands-on experience in various aspects of historic preservation, education, environmental stewardship, and community engagement.

This volunteer program will run Tuesday, July 7, 2026, through Friday, August 7, 2026, from 10am to 3pm each day. Upon successful completion of the program, leaders will complete 125 hours of volunteer service. Youth Leaders will receive all relevant information, training, and schedules on the first day of the program.

Planting Fields Foundation will make student selections based on the following criteria:

Residency

- Must reside in Nassau or Suffolk County

Grade Level

- Must be completing 9th, 10th, or 11th grade by June 2026

Commitment

- Must be able to attend the full program schedule (Monday, July 6 – Friday, August 7, from 10am – 3pm each day)

Application Completion

- Submission of a fully completed application, including all required information and essay responses.
- Parent/guardian permission required upon acceptance.

Interest & Enthusiasm: Demonstrated interest in one or more program areas:

- Historic Preservation & Archival Research
- Education & Public Engagement
- Environmental Conservation & Sustainability
- Community Service & Leadership

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis, with priority consideration given to those submitted by April 13. The final deadline to apply is April 30. Selected participants will be announced during the first week of May. Completed application packets can be scanned and emailed to Sustainability Coordinator, Rebecca Slagle at rslagle@plantingfields.org with the subject line: 2026 Youth Leaders Application.

Incomplete applications will not be considered. Please note that this application and/or program may be subject to change.
